

Types of Sentences #1

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Why can't we get ice cream tonight

Types of Sentences #2

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Please put away your laundry

Types of Sentences #3

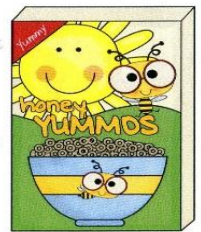

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

The golden leaves on the tree sparkled in the sunlight

Types of Sentences #4

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Would you prefer cereal or a bagel for breakfast

Types of Sentences #5

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

I can't believe how much it snowed last night

Types of Sentences #6

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

My great grandmother made a pie for dessert

Types of Sentences #7

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Do you think the detective will be able to solve the mystery

Types of Sentences #8

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Get up and get ready for school, Joey

Types of Sentences #9

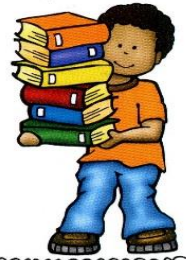

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

I bring my iPad to school every day

Types of Sentences #10

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

I got so many books at the library today

Types of Sentences #11

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Should I add more rock to the bottom of the fishbowl

Types of Sentences #12

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Put your bug spray on before you go hiking in the woods

Types of Sentences #13

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

I caught so many fireflies last night

Types of Sentences #14

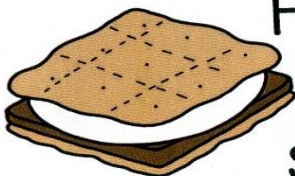

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

My dog dressed up as a superhero for Halloween

Types of Sentences #15

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

How do I make s'mores

Types of Sentences #16

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

My flashlight is missing, and it's so dark out

Types of Sentences #17

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

I found an old wizard hat in the attic

Types of Sentences #18

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Get your lunch out of the fridge before you leave for school

Types of Sentences #19

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

You will find the new park just past the trees

Types of Sentences #20

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Did the scarecrow keep the birds out of your garden

Types of Sentences #21

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

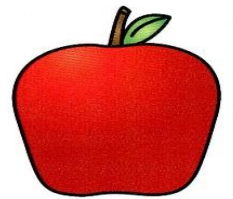

Good luck at your game tonight

Types of Sentences #22

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

An apple a day keep the doctor away

Types of Sentences #23

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Use the bubbly soap to wash the dog

Types of Sentences #24

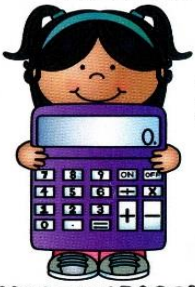

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Why do teachers make us sit quietly during fire drills

Types of Sentences #25

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Get out your calculator and sit quietly in your seat

Types of Sentences #26

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

I am so proud that my family recycles

Types of Sentences #27

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Before you vacuum, you need to brush the dog

Types of Sentences #28

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

I love playing soccer

Types of Sentences #29

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Watch out for that cone in the middle of the street

Types of Sentences #30

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Jack almost forgot his pencil on the way to the library

Types of Sentences #31

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Fill up your water bottle before you go for a long run

Types of Sentences #32

Identify each sentence as declarative, exclamatory, interrogative, or imperative.

Will you help mom carry in the groceries

